

Henry Salomons, B.A. C.A.
Chartered Accountant

Henry graduated from the University of Waterloo, with an Honours Bachelor of Arts, (Chartered Accountancy/Economics Option, Co-op program) in 1985 and received his Chartered Accountancy designation in 1986. After 10 years of progressing through Public Accounting Firms in Toronto, Henry moved to Beamsville, Ontario to start his own Public Accounting Practice. In addition, Henry provides management services to several corporations, and owns a bookkeeping/tax preparation service.

Henry has been active in politics and charitable organizations for over twenty years. After working to elect a pro-life PC MPP, Henry became involved with the founding of the CHP, and continues to be active at all political levels in the Niagara Region.

Henry has also been past Treasurer of a Christian High School, the Canadian Christian Business Federation (CCBF), and various Church Boards. Henry currently acts as Treasurer of the Lincoln Canadian Reformed Church, where he attends as an active member.

Henry is married to Sharon, and has four children under the age of ten; James, Sarah, Esther and Josiah.

In addition to being active in the business community, Henry is involved in “clean” politics, and enjoys traveling and spending time with the family.

As a follower of Jesus Christ, I believe that He died for all my sins, and in thankfulness and only through the power of the Holy Spirit, I direct my life to please him, realizing that our time on this earth is short, and we look forward to everlasting life to come, after we pass by this vale of tears.
